

Dear Seethamahalakshmi,

Probably you're waiting for someone's text, but here I am, landing here again! 😂

I don't know if you'll see this, but anyway, I hope today brings you as much laughter and joy as you bring to the world just by being you. I won't bore you with a long speech, but I just want to say — you're unforgettable! Literally. I know you know that 😊.

It's been about 844 days, and I'm still here, without expecting anything 😊. This isn't me trying to make you notice me — I just wanted to wish you a genuinely happy birthday because you truly deserve it.

So eat some cake 🍰, laugh a lot, study well, love your parents, keep adding song notes 🎵 like good reels 😊, and have a day as amazing as you are! Take care and enjoy your day —

I DOUBLYUU! <3
